Only two more days intervene between this and the day of election, which is to decide the fate of the numerous candidates now before the people for charter offices, and although the canvass has rapidly charged its position during the last three or four days, more so than at any other time during the campaign, yet we apprehend that nothing will transpire to change the issue from its present position before the morning of election, although the politicians are counting largely upon making inreads in the ranks of the opposing factions by skill and management; but in this they will find themselves mistaken. The public have by this time fully made up their unind public have by this time fully made up their mind who they will vote for, especially for Mayor, and wha who they will vote for, especially for Mayor, and wha little can be said or done by the politicians will have but little effect upon the result, unless it is the cheating and making voters believe that their ballots are for one man, when, in fact, they are for some other.

The general reader might be led to believe, from the kong lists of advertisements that have daily appeared in the Herand under the head of "Political," that all New York was upside down and under a great commotion in regard was upside down and under a great commotion in regard to the centest; but as far as our experience goes we have not found that to be the case. The public meetings that have been held either by the Morart, Tammany, republican or the no party organizations have been slim affairs, and do not, by a long way, approach the political mass smeetings that were formerly held in the city, either at general State and national or mayoratty elections. This will unquestionably have its effect upon the number of croters that will turn out on election day. Should Tues-day be a pleasant day—one that will need no overshoes to keep the feet dry—there will be from five to eight and more votes than at the November election, we do not anticipate that the vote, under contingency will exceed sixty-five thousand, and when it comes to be counted, unless we are very much mistaken in the signs of the times, it will be found that the vote for the three candidates will vary but little-They will run nearer together than any of the political writers or speakers have been willing to give the figures. earer a neck and neck race than any former con

The Union sentiment will be a formidable feature in the vote, and on this point Opdyke has been rapidly Fosing ground ever since he paraded himself as one of the gathering at which Senator Sumner was the orator, and a number of the shining lights of the Garrison school occupied the platform and helped to give tone to the meeting. The change that has been working since then is not among the wiry politicans who have been the followers o Opdyke and the Greeley factions, but among the mer chants and business men, who make no parade of their litical opinions, but walk up to the polls and quietly deposit their ballots. Among this class there has been a great change in feeling, and we have, while conversing with those who, only a week asgo, announced themselves as being for Opdyke, received the impression that they reared that the result of this election would be a severe peaced that the result of this election would be a severe blow to the Union cause in the event of the success of Opdyke. The abolition tene of the organs supporting him, and their attempt to urge the emancipation cry upon the administration, would only increase the secession fever in the South, and give to the leaders in the Southern confederacy a new handle to pre-claim throughout the length and breadth of rebel-dom that the Union army was marching southward to carry of their slaves and downstate the South. Such is the feeling that has taken possession of a large number of our conservative men, who at one time contemplated voling for Opdyke, and will reduce his vote by thousands. Whatever may be the statements of the abolition orators and their organs, the public in this city are not ready to give their endorsement to any abolition crusate; they are for the Union as it was, and its restoration at as early a day as possible; and Opdyke will find that on election day, with his abolition associations, the fact that in all the State and county conventions, organizations of the Lygislature, and on every occasion where a stand has been made, that he always is found hand in glove with Greeley, and for the same schemes as the extremest of the republican party, will hang like a mill stone about his meck and prove the load that will pull him down.

Where this vote will go that has been leaving Opdyke of course we have no way of judging, but presume that will be divided between the other candidates—doubtless the majority for Wood. Gooffrey Gunther has unquestionably gained rapidly during the past week; but one great fault with the Tammany organization, from which he recolusation bolk of his support, their organization in the streamsoncerait wards—such as the Fourth, Fifth, Eighth and Fourteenth wards—is not worth a judging, the past week; but one great fault with the Tammany organization, from which he recolusation to the party, disgust the better class of democrats, who will vote for Wood rather than see Tammany carry t ow to the Union cause in the event of the success of tage of all such wenginesser, and the considerably mixed the German element appear to be considerably mixed. The German element appear to be considerably mixed.

The German learners appear to be considerably mixed up. The German Democratic Giub, of which George Kuster, the late candidate of Mozart Hall for Supervisor, is chairman, has cut leose from Mozart and come out for Gunther. The German Union Lasgue, or as the conservative Gormans, have endorsed Opdyke. Other clubs of Germans, have come out for Wood, and thus the fight rages somewhat interesting to watch, from the fact that the different armies are so equally divided in numbers, at Boast apparently.

In all political contests we have the developement of curiosities unique, and oftentimes rich and rany, and this campaign is not without its fair share in this line. Among those that have come to light during the Mayoralty contest is the confidence dodge of the taxpayers' party and their peculiar mode for raising funds to help the election of Opdyke. It seems that an organization was formed, the list of taxpayers of the city obtained, and a large number from each ward selected as delegates to the organization, printed on a large sheet of paper and promulgated as the bona fide members of the saxpayers' organization. An executively finance committee was formed, whereupon its chairman commenced sending the long list of names, printed on their circular, to each person named on it, with a letter asking forgeontributions, and a bisuit receipt to be returned with the funds for raceipt. The two following paragraphs are the last two of the letter, which we give to our readers as a sample of design business and the last dodge to raise money.—

That we may insure success at the coming election, the amount of funds required by this organization, to defray the

doing business and the last dodge to raise money.—
That we may insure success at the coming election, the amount of funds required by this organization, to defray the expense of hiring men and providing borse for the two hundred and twenty poling data-tel, for advertising, printing and distributing hirkets, for postage, addressing and delvering onvelopes, &c., will necessarily be large. The more founds the committees have at their disposal for these purposes, the more thoroughly, effectually and successfully will the objects of the second of the same and the successfully will the objects as delegate to the Tarpayers' and Citizens' Union, you are therefore called upon to contribute, for the purposes thus briefly stated, such sum as you may think proper. It is hoped that, considering the importance of the basiness at take, and the magnitude of the task involved in the strengle at hand, each delegate will deem if not only his duty, but his interest, to be liberal in his subscription. As no time is to be lost, you will please forward your contributions to the chairman of the Finance Committee, or transmit your check in the inclosed envelope, on receiving which due acknowledgment will be made.

Accompanying this letter was a blank receipt, in the fol-

Such is one of the confidence modes that are being made use of to elect Mr. Opdyke Mayor of this city. Not a word is said in their letter who are their candidates, leaving those whom they address to find out that part the best way that they can. Ready, is not this arrangement worthy of Baraum's attention?

The aldermanic contest is becoming decidedly interesting, and there is one encouraging feature in this part of the campaign. There is every indication that Roole, Barry, and several other of the Japanese and Hackley contract philosophers will be defeated. At the last charter election the opponents of the aldermanic Ring accured the election of foar or five good men, who have stood faithful to their duties—such men as Chipp, Forment, Dayton, and one or two more—and if this election brings about the defeat of five or six more of the Japanese philosophers, and the election of good men in their places, there will be a chance for a better order of things at the City Hall, and a reform secured that will of a hundred times as much good to the true interests of the city as the election of reform Mayors, as it will strike at the ovil in its den.

The hardest contest is in the Twelfth Aldermanic dis-

the city as the election of reform Mayors, as it will strike at the ovil in its den.

The hardest contest is in the Twelfth Aldermanic district, between Boole, of Japanese tame, and ex-Senator Bernard Kelly. The former is nominated by Tammany and soveral cipbs. The latter is the regular Mozart candidate, endorsed by the taxpayers of the ward and the republicanse. His chances for success are therefore good, and giving Beole such a chase as he never before had. Our impressions are that Boole's arrangement with the Croton Beard to receive certain par centage on all the Russ pavement laid down in the city will close about the latt of January next, by virtue of this election, and that addition to our taxes stopped.

In nearly all the aldermanig districts, however, there are some tall arrangements for cheating going on. Arrangements are being made by Tammany Aldermen to xun Mozart forces with Wood for Mayor, and by Mozart Aldermen to run Tammany forces with Gunther for Mayor. Probably those are not over two or three districts where there is an exception to this rule. The result is, there is going to be a repetition of the cheating practised at the late election, in a great measure complicating the contest and adding doubt to the result, as it was in that election. Unless the game is blocked the big gest cheater will come out absed. It may, however, prove that cheating in a game that cannot be successfully repeated. Arrangements have been made in many of the aldermanic districts to such an arrent that let either Wood or Gunther be defeated, there will come up a bewl from their respective parties that their aldermanic candidates cheated and sold them to receive their own election. Such is the beautiful and honest appearance of politics and politicians in the Em-pire City, and as such we leave them to their cheating

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 30, 1861.

Hon. Fernance. Wood, Mayor, New York:

James Scully, Sixty-third regiment, New York Volunteers, died here this morning. What disposition shall be made of his body?

E. WARD, M. D.

To which the following answer was returned:—

E. Wand, M. D., 941 South Second street:—Please send on the remains properly coffined to this city, directed to the City Hall, and I will see that the expenses are paid.

FERNANDO WOOD, Mayor.

Major General Frement having intimated his desire to receive his friends yesterday, between the hours of ten the opportunity to pay their respects to the General and his amiable and accomplished wife. The levee was held in the General's parlor, No. 157, in the Astor House, Captains Tracy and Howard and Licutenants Hallowell and Raymond were on duty, and introduced each visiter to the General, by whom they were cordially received. Mrs. Fremont and her daughter, Miss Lilly Fre-mont, were present, and did the honors on this occasion with all their accustomed grace and amiability. Many of the visiters were already personally familiar to them, and were greeted with much warmth and friendliness.

The General spoke to each one in a very low tone of voice, and is evidently much worn with care and fatigue since the last time he was in this city on his arrival from Europe, and previous to taking command of the Department of the West. Among those who called on the General yesterday were Hon, Day Otis Kellogg, United States Censul to Glasgow under President Fillmore's administration, and who had met Mrs. Fremout in Paris several years since; Sonator Sherman, Senator Manierre, W. E. Boies, J. S. Davies, C. W. Adams, J. S. Ritterband, E. Langdon, Dr. Adelberg, Isaac Sherman, S. Lassar, S. L. Macomber, Coles Morris and Rev. Henry Ward Beecher and his son, Lieut. Beech or. The reverend gentleman was most cordially received, and spent about fifteen minutes in conversation with General and Mrs. Fremont. A delegation of Germans, and one from the Republican Rocky Mountain Glee Club, waited on General Fremont during the day. To-day (Sunday) the General will attend divino service at Plymouth church.

At half-past ten o'clock last night a committee of our German fellow citizens, consisting of fourteen persons and accompanied by about a dozen of the Arion Singing Club, preceded to the Astor House for the purpose  $\alpha_{\Gamma}$ coording Major General Fremont and his lady. In ac-cordance with the express wishes of the Major General the proceedings were characterized by as much privacy as possible. The committee and the singers, having taken up their positions in the passages very close to the private apartments of Major General Fremont, the serenade was commenced by the singing of "Grusst Dich Viel Tausend Mann," or, in English, "There Greets Thee Many a Thousand Men." The serenadars were then conducted to the room of Major General Fremont, who received them in the most gracious manner.
Dr. Adelberg introduced Mr. Frederick Kapp to the Major General. Mr. Kapp made a concise speech, in which he assured Major General Premont of the sympathics and support of the German people in this his hour of trouble. Mrs. Feemont was scated in the room during the recaption and conversed affably with the visiters. Some other pieces having been sung Major General Frement shock hands with his German friends and the screnade closed,

PEPUBLICANS,
WHY THROW AWAY YOUR VOTES!
The undersigned, republicans of the city of New York, begreaperfully to address a few words of counsel to their political brethren on the aublect of the Mayorsity election. We are among those who carnestly supported the Hon. George Ondyke in the full of 1859. We did so for the reason that we were satisfied that the contest was between Mr. Opdyke and Fernando Wood. The result demonstrated our mixture. Notwithstanding the free use of money, and the most determined exercions, our candidate came out third in the
